

HOW TO TALK TO Your Friends - ABOUT -

Kayser Enneking

1

Kayser is a nationally renowned doctor, UF professor and mother of two - she is definitely NOT a politician.

2

Kayser is running for State Representative because Tallahassee politicians are putting special interests ahead of the interests of regular families.

3

Kayser grew up in Gainesville and raised her family here with her husband, Mark. Kayser is committed to doing what's best for our community.

4

Once elected, Kayser will use her expertise to fix our broken health care system by lowering costs, expanding Medicaid to nearly a million Floridians and defending women's reproductive rights.

5

From strengthening our public schools to protecting our environment, our state faces many challenges that Kayser is committed to solving. But the only way anything will change is with your help.

FAQs

ABOUT KAYSER ENNEKING

Q: Does Kayser care about anything other than health care?

A: Yes! Kayser cares about our families and knows our community is facing many issues. Kayser will work to invest in our public schools, raise teacher pay, defend our environment, combat climate change and protect our families from gun violence.

Q: Why should I care about a State House election?

A: We know it can be hard to focus on anything besides the disaster unfolding in Washington right now but many of the problems facing our families can be solved with new leadership in Tallahassee. If strengthening our schools, fixing our health care system, protecting our environment and defending our families from gun violence are important to you - you should care about the State House.

Q: What can I do to help Kayser win?

A: Studies have shown the most effective communication comes from friends and family. Just talking with those close to you about Kayser and ensuring they will vote down the ballot for Kayser will make a huge difference. To get more involved, reach out to our campaign about more volunteer opportunities.
